Eastern District of North Carolina

□ (2	The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition will reasonably assure
LJ (2	the defendant's appearance and the safety of the community.
	Alternative Findings (B)
1 (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
d (2	There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
	Part II— Statement of the Reasons for Detention I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by Clear and convincing evidence that Based on the defendant's waiver of his/her right to a detention hearing, there is no condition, or combination of conditions, that can be imposed which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and/or the safety of another person or the community. For the reasons indicated below, there is no condition, or combination of conditions, that can be imposed which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and/or safety of another person or the community. The nature of the charges The lack of stable employment The lack of a suitable custodian The lack of a suitable custodian The indication of substance abuse The fact that the charges arose while on state probation The defendant's criminal history The history of probation violations/revocations Other: Proposed release to area in close proximity to where the alleged drug sales occurred; history of absconding
